

Frozen Summer

by Ian Austin

Ian Austin is being compared to Ian Rankin with his Dan Calder trilogy of crime novels. Frozen Summer completes this thrilling trilogy!

The Dan Calder series is a trilogy of crime novels featuring the uniquely talented but also uniquely flawed ex-detective. His struggles with depression and his haunting past as he reluctantly travels from England to the other side of the world and back again, to prevent or solve some of the darkest crimes imaginable. Causing trouble or falling headlong into it is more than a habit for Dan Calder.

Frozen Summer is the nickname Calder's girlfriend Tara gives to a cold case. Who else but Calder would investigate an unsolved killing where he's the only suspect? The time has come to revisit the scene of his blackest experience so he can move on once and for all. At stake are relationships with Tara and their new son Bradley, and possibly his very liberty. One way or another it ends here.

- A stunning new voice in crime fiction.
- Series is set in New Zealand and the UK.
- Police procedural content second to none, the author drawing on his years in the force.
- Dan Calder, a flawed hero with integrity, drive and commitment to the truth, no matter the cost.

IAN AUSTIN was born and educated in Southampton, England. Ian worked with the Hampshire Police, moving through the ranks from officer on the beat to constable and then detective. He also served as a tactical firearms officer, covert surveillance operative and became the youngest trainer in the National Crime Squad. In 2001, having suffered a serious injury while on the job, Ian decided to move to New Zealand and start a new life. He is the author of the Dan Calder crime trilogy, The Agency, The Second Grave, and Frozen Summer.

117,000 words, not yet published

For all rights inquiries contact Linda Cassells linda@calicopublishing.co.nz